Three Arrested In Connection With Burglaries

Three juveniles arrested in Waveland Saturday night have confessed to a number of crimes committed in the area in the past weeks.

Waveland police apprehended two 16-year-olds and a 17-year-old about 10:30 p.m. Saturday when they sideswiped three parked cars at the intersection of Waveland and Central Aves. The driver of the car, a 1960 Chevrolet, fled and was later arrested. The youths were booked for driving while intoxicated, public drunkenness and possession of stolen goods found in the car.

At the sheriff's office the three teenagers signed confessions admitting to several other crimes in the Bay, Waveland, Pass Christian area as well as the recent vandalism at Hancock North Central School, which involved an estimated $2,000 worth of damage to school property.

Waveland police involved in the original arrests were patrolmen Walter Turcotte, A.D. Dorn, Jr., Donald Dorn and Eugene Hughes. Questioning by sheriff's deputies Emile Piazza, Fairley Nease and Edward Priloux brought to light the other confessed crimes. The youths are being held in the county detention center pending youth court hearings.

BUILDINGS COMING DOWN—Workers from Bal Construction Co. begin demolishing one of the three front buildings at St. Stanislaus Monday. A recently-completed $2-million dollar building will replace the three which suffered damage because of Hurricane Camille. The demolition will take approximately three months. ## Brothers Celebrate 150th Anniversary

On September 30, 1871, the Brothers of the Sacred Heart will celebrate the 150th anniversary of their founding. The Brothers of the Sacred Heart, a religious congregation of men dedicated to the Christian education of youth, were founded in 1821 at Lyons, France, by Father Andrew Coindre. From ten Brothers in 1821 the Brothers of the Sacred Heart now number approximately 2,500 religious in twenty countries throughout the world. The province of New Orleans numbers 170 religious in seven schools in the states of Texas, Louisiana, Alabama and Mississippi.

The Brothers of the Sacred Heart first came to the United States in 1847 and settled in Mobile, Alabama. Five brothers were chosen to form the first band of brothers to settle in the United States. Since that time the Brothers have taught in schools in the following cities: Alexandria, Baton Rouge, Donaldsonville, Thibodaux, Houma, Mansura and New Orleans, Louisiana; Vicksburg, Meridian, Natchez and Bay Saint Louis, Mississippi; Mobile and Daphne, Alabama; Dallas and Fort Worth, Texas; Muskogee, Oklahoma; Augusta, Georgia; Charleston, South Carolina; Dubuque, Iowa; Vincennes, Indianapolis and Washington, Indiana; Bardonia, White Sulphur, Kentucky; Detroit, Michigan; New York City, Brooklyn, Huntington and Far Rockaway, New York; and Metuchen, New Jersey.

Because of the great geographical distance involved, the province of the United States was divided in 1960 into two smaller provinces—New York and New Orleans. At present the Brothers of the Sacred Heart in the New Orleans Province own and operate Brother Martin High School in New Orleans; Catholic High School in Baton Rouge; and St. Stanislaus High School in Bay St. Louis, Mississippi. They also teach at Bishop Dunne High School in Dallas, Edward Douglas White High School in Thibodaux; Vandebilt High in Houma; and McGill High School in Mobile. Besides the Brothers operate missionary schools in Africa. The present provincial superior is Brother Mark Thornton, S.C., and he resides at St. Stanislaus College in Bay St. Louis, Mississippi.

Officials Consider Franchise Ordinance

Carver Names Bay Program Coordinator

The appointment of Bunk Gardner of Waveland as program coordinator for the city of Bay St. Louis has been announced by Mayor Warren Carver.

Gardner's primary function for the city administration will be to coordinate and set up various federally funded projects available to municipalities. In this area he will act as liaison agent between the city administration and Bay Operation Upturn in the development of the city's Workable Program, under HUD supervision.

Gardner said, "The Workable Program is one of HUD's housing and urban development programs devoted to elimination of slums and blighted areas."

Gardner further explained that he will deal primarily with encouragement of citizen participation in the Workable Program.

Other duties will include an examination of the operational functions of various city departments, under the Mayor's cognizance, and to provide recommendations for achieving more efficient productivity in the city administration.

Gardner has been retained at a salary of $125 a week on a matching-funds basis through Operation Upturn.

Originally from Mayfield, Ky., Gardner has been a resident of this area since 1963. He attended the University of North Carolina and in 1942, was inducted into the U.S. Army Signal Corps. He spent the majority of his service time in the European Theater, and at the war's end, returned to the Mayfield, where he was associated with a local bank as a vice-president and cashier. He was also municipal bond representative for the Bankers Bond Company in Louisville, Ky., a concern which acted as a fiscal agency for various community bodies and local governmental agencies.

In Waveland, Gardner was associated with a local automobile agency and has been active with the Bay St. Louis Little Theatre. He is a member of Christ Episcopal Church and director of the choir there, as well as participating in other community musical groups.

A municipal ordinance which would grant a 25-year non-exclusive electric service franchise to Mississippi Power Company was introduced Sept. 7, 1971, during the regular meeting of the governing bodies of Bay St. Louis and Waveland.

Following an initial reading of the franchise ordinance by the City Clerk, an order was adopted which provides that the matching-funds basis through City Hall for public inspection for at least two weeks, as Ky., Gardner has been a resident of this area since 1963. He attended the University of North Carolina and in 1942, was inducted into the U.S. Army Signal Corps. He spent the majority of his service time in the European Theater, and at the war's end, returned to the Mayfield, where he was associated with a local bank as a vice-president and cashier. He was also municipal bond representative for the Bankers Bond Company in Louisville, Ky., a concern which acted as a fiscal agency for various community bodies and local governmental agencies.

In Waveland, Gardner was associated with a local automobile agency and has been active with the Bay St. Louis Little Theatre. He is a member of Christ Episcopal Church and director of the choir there, as well as participating in other community musical groups.

City officials noted that Mississippi Power Company's franchise payment to Bay St. Louis for the year 1970 was $12,000 and that under the

STUDENTS FROM Bay Senior High school who must walk home via Main St. are forced to walk in the street because there is no sidewalk. As in the middle picture, cars are forced to go around the students, often creating both a traffic jam and a hazard to the pedestrians. The Bay city fathers have already agreed to put a sidewalk on the section of Main St. but until a contract is let and the construction begun, the street is the only alternative for the students.

JOHNSONGRASS CONTROL

For getting rid of Johnsongrass you must give consideration to both seedling and rhizome grass. You might try chiseling or plowing several times to bring the rhizomes up and expose them to cold weather for freeze kill.

Dalapon applied to actively growing plants using high volume spray and a one-half percent surfactant solution during hot weather will give good results.

On soybean land you can try the double strength treatment with Trellan.

TIMBER STAND IMPROVEMENT

Most authorities agree that three out of every four acres of Mississippi timber land need timber stand improvement work.

Cull tree removal is the timber stand management practice needed most today. If there is a market for the type trees you have and you do not foresee a market within five years, you are justified in removing them from your stand.

You can use the herbicides 2,4-D or 2,4,5-T to help get rid of the unwanted trees. They can be applied directly to the individual tree stems with a specially designed tool called a tree injector. The 2,4-D is applied in the concentrated form with a metered injector that will dispense a precise amount of the herbicide.

The 2,4,5-T is applied in solution. Mix the ester form of the herbicide in fuel oil; the amine form in water. Use one gallon of the 2,4,5-T to 19 gallons of either water or oil as the case may be.

DAIRY RECORDS

Only around 15 percent of Mississippi dairymen keep production records on their cows. These records are badly needed so that you will know which cows are paying their way and which are free boarders. Production records should contain such information as how much milk the cow gives, the butterfat content, how much feed she is eating, calving dates, breeding dates and dry dates and the number of days the cow is in milk.

Good records will let you cull your unprofitable cows and to give extra feed to the ones that will respond to extra feeding with more milk.

Letters to the editor

Dear Sir:

My heart goes out to Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Johnston, or any other person or persons in similar troubles, as victims of injustice, via the law. They are typical of the current trend in judicial procedure of our times.

The innocent law abiding citizens are those who are mistreated and the criminal element reap the rewards in sympathy from human justice as is practiced today. Really, it very often doesn't do any good to call the law, in many cases, Mr. and Mrs. Johnston are not the only persons I've heard of ending up in this predicament. It may have helped, if they had called their children into their home, and if their offenders had persisted, then call the law, perhaps their case may have turned out differently.

It all goes to prove one cannot trust human justice; there is only one Divine Judge who in His own good time takes care of the pervert, bias and partiality of those who sit in authority, taking advantage of innocent victims of mankind! ELEANOR EVERETT MCFIE

Local Government In Action

Bay St. Louis Police Department

(ED. NOTE: This is the third in a series of articles by staff writer Adoree Shortle, explaining the various departments within the three local governments - Bay St. Louis, Waveland and Hancock County.)

The subject of much public department's present structure and personal controversy for some time, the Bay St. Louis Police Department is apparently in need of a more efficient organizational set-up as well as facility and equipment upgrading to provide the citizens with the quality of law enforcement protection which is vital to any community.

An examination of the department's present structure reveals discrepancies in materials and equipment, seriously detrimental to efficient departmental functioning. Personnel are overworked, underpaid, ill equipped and untrained.

Directly responsible for the police department operation until July 19, the city administration has not provided the means for the department to grow and develop in proportion to the growth of the city and resultant increase in crime in the community.

CONDEMNED FACILITY

A major concern is the inadequacy of the fire and police station facility at 303 Carroll Ave. The two departments have been housed in condemned buildings at this site since hurricane Camille.

A move to relocate both departments to Veterans C. Jones School has been taken under advisement by the city council and approved by the state fire marshal's recent inspection of both facilities.

Operation Upturn, which is available for renovation to the school building to accommodate police department requirements such as a communications room, office spaces and parking for police cars. Preliminary plans and a cost analysis have been submitted by Upturn to the Mayor's office for action.

PERSONNEL

Robert Goodsell was appointed chief of the six-man force by the commission council two years ago. Other personnel include Assistant Chief Douglas Williams, Sgt. Alvin Favre, Sgt. Emmett Ellis, and Patrolmen Larry Laddner and Wilbert Dorsey.

Harry Chatham is chief of the auxiliary department and Harris Boudreaux auxiliary sergeant. Auxiliary patrolmen include Karl Handaret, Tom Karl, Sebastian Pellerito, Sidney Sandoz, Alphonse Sheppard, Leo Robison, Albert Bahl III, Alton Sick, Jr., and Ervin Hille.

PAYSCALE

The chief receives a salary of $900 a month and is on call 24 hours a day, seven days a week. He usually averages a 14-16 hour day. All other regular personnel, including the assistant chief, are paid $2.05 an hour.

Each man works an eight-hour shift, seven days a week with no time off. Minimum law enforcement requirement calls for two men on duty on each shift, so auxiliary Sgt. Boudreaux works a regular shift to make the required six-man roster.

Auxiliary personnel receive no pay and will ride with a regular patrolman whenever possible. The city supplies badges and arm patches, but regulars and auxiliary have to supply their own uniforms, guns, ammunition, belts, handcuffs and all other equipment. Occasionally the chief has been able to secure donated uniforms from other departments for the men.

DUTY HAZARDS

Due to the minimal force, a patrolman generally rides alone, and the situation is made hazardous by the absence of screens or any protective device within the patrol cars. The department is also lacking shotguns, riot guns or riot equipment. Bank doors on the patrol cars have inside handles so a patrolman transporting a prisoner to the county jail must ride the prisoner in the front seat where he can be watched.

TRAFFIC CONTROL

Another situation of concern to the chief is the problem of traffic control at school crossings. Several hundred children cross highway 90 at Dunbar every weekday morning and afternoon so a patrolman on traffic duty is essential, as well as on Second St. at Our Lady of the Gulf School.

This leaves no man available to patrol the city or answer police calls at those times. When available, an auxiliaryman will assist traffic control policeman Dolores Favre on Dunbar at North Bay.

If you don't feel quite up to reading English history, this week, there is also an entertaining and thought-provoking selection of American biography, including BUCHER, MY STORY, in which Commander Lloyd M. Suttay, USN, Captain of the USS Pueblo, tells his story of the Pueblo's capture by the North Koreans and of the crew's following ordeal. Somewhat closer to home is GROWING UP BLACK, edited by Jay Davis, a collection of autobiographies of nineteen black children growing up in white America, including such famous personalities as Booker T. Washington, Malcolm X, Dick Gregory, and Richard Wright. Mississippians will be interested in YAZOO: INTEGRATION IN A DEEP SOUTHERN TOWN by Willie Morris, formerly editor-in-chief of HARPER'S MAGAZINE and a native of Yazoo City. In both YAZOO and his autobiography NORTH TOWARD HOME, Morris gives a thoughtful and honest southern appraisal of his home.

Goodsell has asked the sheriff's department for traffic control assistance during school hours but says none has been forthcoming.

TRAINING

Bay police personnel attend state sponsored training schools and seminars whenever they are available in nearby cities, and have just completed a Basic Law Enforcement course, held in Bay St. Louis and conducted by a former Louisiana sheriff's deputy. There has never been a course in firearms training.

Goodsell has filed a request with Federal Bureau of Investigation authorities for a narcotics abuse course to be conducted in the Bay, so that as many department members as possible can take advantage of the opportunity. His hope is that law enforcement personnel county-wide as well as Waveland and Pass Christian will be able to attend.

The costliest education is one that dead ends into nowhere - an education that ends when a youngster decides to drop out of school. It is costly because a dropout is throwing away thousands of dollars in future earning power, a startling fact that many dropouts evidently refuse to believe.

The Mississippi Economic Council, citing recent Census Bureau figures, reports that the average lifetime (age 18 to 64) earnings of a man with eight years of grade school is $189,000. This compares with the average lifetime earnings of a high school graduate of $341,000 or a college graduate of $508,000.

A dropout penalizes himself and his future family. The skills he could have learned are lost - skills that would have meant a better life for himself and his family.

Unfortunately the dropout rate is increasing, according to the State Department of Education. At the end of the past school year, 3.41 percent of the 534,993 public school students who enrolled in September had left school by May of this year.

This compares with the 3.27 percent dropout rate during the 1969-70 school year. Until the past two years, Mississippi's dropout rate had been steadily decreasing from a 1944-45 high of 3.77 percent.

The MEC hopes every parent, student and educator will help reverse the trend of school dropouts in Mississippi. Neither the state nor the individual concerned can afford the loss in education, in skills and in earning power.

Where Does United Fund Money Go?

CATHOLIC SOCIAL SERVICES
Did you know this multi-purpose social agency works in Hancock County giving assistance to all who call on them for help. Their adoption service has placed many wonderful babies in local homes to grow up in a normal and happy environment. They also handle adoptions for older children, although many of the children whose families cannot care for them are placed in foster homes. Catholic Social Services pays the foster parents a fee each month and assumes expenses other than the room and board. A number of Hancock County children live under this plan.

Catholic Social Services has been known to rehabilitate whole families; for when they have been requested to help children they find children in need of assistance and direction. Hancock County families have received this tremendous type of help, and although the structure is not always permanent, this organization is always there to give further and continuous help. Some of the children are in foster homes, but wherever possible a child is returned to his own family. Catholic Social Service gives protection and assistance to children who are neglected, abused and exploited.

Take the case of Bobby, for instance. When one of the social workers, in response to a referral from the Juvenile Court, went to visit Bobby in another care, he was a deeply disturbed child, timid and restless. We had been informed that the police had picked Bobby up during the past night, that he was a runaway and a neglected child. His mother had left home several weeks before and his father was an alcoholic, either unwilling or unable to care for him. After several days of shelter care, during which time Bobby received a physical examination and psychological evaluation test, he was placed in an authorized foster home. There were other children around Bobby's age in the family who were happy and content about having a new brother, and Bobby soon responded to their friendliness. The love and understanding he received from his foster parents, combined with their consistent firmness in disciplining him, when necessary, slowly transformed Bobby from a scared, lonely, and confused child to a happy, confident child with a desire to develop

'Operation Venus' Hopes To Combat Venereal Disease

There is a new number in town. It is 433-0000. That is the number of a hot-line service for people who have VD or think they have VD. The telephone operates six days a week, Monday thru Saturday, from 4:30 to 6:00 p.m.

So many times the subject of VD has been thrown aside, but young, interested teenagers on the Gulf Coast feel that it has been thrown aside too long. This is the reason for "Operation Venus." It is a youth-to-youth service that starts (or started) on Saturday, September 25.

One out of every four people will have VD some time in their life. Four out of every five boys will have it. If you are a girl, the chances are that you will never know that you have it. In 1970, 8243 people in Mississippi reported cases of VD. The actual number is eight times that number, but the cases are never reported. The only way to be sure is to take the test. VD can cause babies to be stillborn, blind, or defective. It can be cured but it can cause damage to tissues that cannot be repaired. Untreated, VD leaves one in 15 a heart victim, one in 25 will be crippled, one in 50 will be insane, and one in 100 will be blind. Don't you think it is time for us to do something about it?

Blue Jeans Judge Plants

Blue Jeans Garden Club held its first meeting of the season Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Honorine Hughes, Bordages St., Clermont Harbor, with Mrs. H.W. Duke, president, conducting the business session.

Mrs. Duke urged members to participate in the county fair.

The infant was baptized Sunday, August 22, in St. Clare's Catholic Church, Waveland, with Rev. Daniel Whelton officiating.

Godparents were a paternal cousin, Mrs. Ray Ladner and Lee Klein of Clermont Harbor.

Teenagers are trained by Mr. Roy Farrar, Harrison County Health Official, on the basic facts of VD. They answer the basic questions about VD, but at no time will a Venus operator give a diagnosis. At no time will a phone operator pass any moral judgment. The operation is completely confidential. Operation "Venus" will try to help anyone.

Operation "Venus" started in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, last January. Continuing the work on the Coast are Mr. Don Flood, teacher at Sacred Heart and Notre Dame in Biloxi, Jim Duncan, a student at Biloxi High School, Melinda Mayes, a student at Sacred Heart, and Kathy Picard, a student at Biloxi High School. Miss Picard is chairman of the operation. The telephone operators wish to remain anonymous.

Suppose you suspect you may be infected? Call 433-0000 from 4:30 to 6:00 p.m., Monday thru Saturday. Only YOU can take this important step!

J.B. LAVOIE, director of Bay St. Louis Civil Defense has submitted the above evacuation plan map for maximum safety and protection in time of disaster. Wards as shown on the map are not regular city wards, but Civil Defense designated divisions covering evacuation centers.

Bay Civil Defense Prepared

Bay St. Louis Civil Defense Director J.B. Lavoie expressed gratitude today to the people who came in person, as well as the great many who telephoned, offering their assistance in the hurricane Edith scare Thursday.

The cooperation of Civil Defense Coordinators Andre Arceneaux and William Frabie, who were in direct communication at all times, 48 hours before and until all problems pertaining to the hurricane and the tornado warnings were handled, was greatly appreciated. All evacuation units, utilities, system units, street department crews, and fire department crews were alerted by their leaders and stood by throughout the storm.

Lavoie said, "Our communications group is to be especially commended for the very long hours and dedicated efforts. More than 400 incoming phone calls and about 300 outgoing warning calls were handled during this time."

Glenn-Morgan Vows Exchanged

The marriage of Miss Shirley Ann Morgan, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Jerold J. Morgan and Robert N. Glenn, Jr., was celebrated in a late afternoon ceremony, Sunday, Aug. 15, at Sacred Heart Church, Hattiesburg, Miss. Miss Morgan is the granddaughter of Mr. and

Pass Sets Book Drive

A book drive has been initiated at Pass Christian by an all-volunteer group, Friends of the Pass Christian Library, to collect 5000 donated books and catalog these books before the still-to-be-constructed public library opens. September 20 through October 20 has been designated as PASS CHRISTIAN BOOK MONTH by the organization.

Containers will be located throughout the city in stores and public buildings. A volunteer group will pick up the books from these deposit stations and bring them to the temporary depository at 345 Polindexter Drive, Pass Christian, for cataloging by the volunteers. Donors should enclose a slip of paper with their name and address so that their donation can be acknowledged.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Anthony Gennusa Jr. of New Orleans announce the birth of their second child and first son, Thomas Anthony III, September 10. He weighed seven pounds, one and one-half ounces.

Mrs. Gennusa, the former Janice Perez, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Perez of New Orleans. The new arrival is a great-grandson of Mrs. Edward Holzmann Sr. of Bay St. Louis and Algiers, La.

BIRTHS

Mrs. A.C. Mercier of Bay St. Louis.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an original gown fashioned for her by her mother. It was designed of silk organza over peau de sole with imported Alencon lace appliqued and jeweled with seed pearls over the dress and Cathedral train. Her full-length veil was held by a headpiece of pearl bordered lace petals. She carried a cascade of white daisies, each centered with a pearl.

Mary H. Morgan was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Adrienne Dobrow, Becky Glenn, Terri Forte, Cookie Owens, Maridel Mercier and Mary Lynn Morgan. They wore identical formal models of lavender Sparkle-lite.

Parents of the bride entertained with a reception at the new St. Thomas Newman Center. A five-tiered almond pound cake centered the bride's table. The groom's table held the traditional chocolate cake centered with a basket of marzipan fruit.

On the eve of the wedding the groom's parents and grandmother entertained the couple, wedding party and all out-of-town guests with a rehearsal buffet on the lawn, patio and pool area of their home. A large wedding bell, twin rings holding white love birds and bridal flowers floated on the pool. The couple chose this occasion to present gifts to their attendants. Mrs. Joseph Forte was hostess at the bridesmaids luncheon on the Sunday prior to the wedding.

Bay High Defeats Pearl River 33-14

The Bay High Tigers added another win to their record (2-1) by defeating the Blue Devils of Pearl River in a non-conference game at Tiger Stadium last Friday.

The Tigers scored first with a 22-yard field goal by Sam Piazza in the first quarter.

The first touchdown was scored by Eric Lynne on a run from the Pearl River one yard line. The extra point by Piazza made the score 10-0.

Later in the second quarter, veteran quarterback Gary Blaize threw a pair of touchdown passes, one to Wes McFarland, the other to Lynne. Piazza added the extra point after each score, making the half time score 24-0.

A second Sam Piazza field goal in the third quarter gave the Tigers three more points.

The Devils got on the board in the fourth quarter when Bernard Roberts took the ball in to score after a 30 yard sweep.

The Devils failed to convert and the score stood at 27-0.

However, the Devils scored again on a Milled pass to Roberts. A two point conversion made the score 27-14.

The last score of the game was a six yard run by Mike Lynne. The point after attempt failed and the game ended 33-14.

Back to School by Bike

According to the magazine U.S. News & World Report, some 51 million young Americans will be heading back to the nation's primary and secondary schools shortly after Labor Day. In the year of the biggest bicycle boom in history, the Bicycle Institute of America says that increasing numbers of them will be going back to school by bike. The Institute says that more than 8 million bikes will be bought before year's end, with some 75% of them going to youngsters in the 5-15 age group.

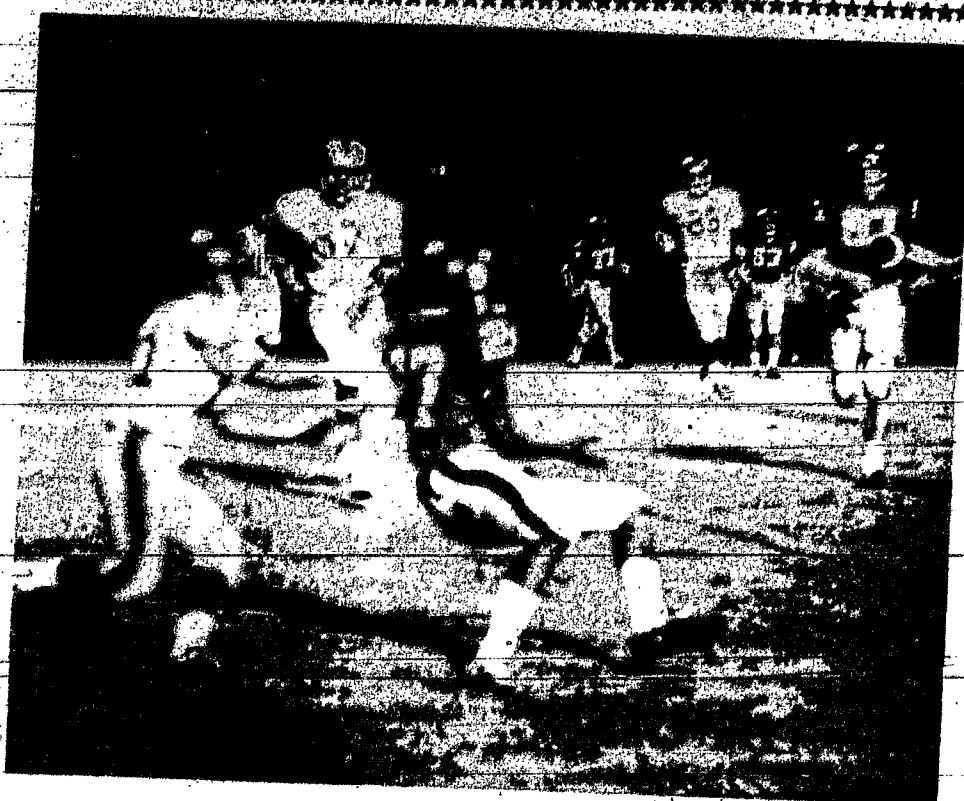

Not only is cycling to school healthy, economical and fun to say nothing of traditional to the singularly idealistic young American, it makes a positive contribution to the environment. Bikes don't pollute; the kids know it, and it gives them one more good reason to get the old—or new—two-wheeler ready for the fall season.

And cycling to school is a comparatively safe activity. The Highway Safety Research Center of the University of North Carolina reports that the average cyclist rides his bike about 300 miles a year, and would ride it 24 years before having an accident that required medical treatment. (NP Features)

JUDO-KARATE

Rocks Fall Hard To Harrison Rebels

The Harrison Central Red Rebels posted their first conference win by handing the St. Stanislaus Rock-a-chows their first conference loss last Friday night at the Rebels' home stadium. The game saw the Rebels capitalizing on the many fumbles that plagued the Rocks.

The first score of the game was set up by a Stanislaus fumble deep in their own territory recovered by Harrison Central. Rebel quarterback Jay Daniel took the ball in on a five-yard keeper for six. Place kicker Willie Hill converted, making the score 7-0 with 4:05 remaining in the first quarter.

The new Rebel score came on a five-yard Daniel pass to split end Larry Jasper. Hill's point after was good making the score 14-0 in favor of the Rebels. The Rocks fumbled the returning kick-off and Anthony Pittman picked it up to run 24 yards for the third Rebel touchdown. Hill failed to convert and the first quarter ended with the Rebels holding an impressive lead of 20 points.

The second quarter was scoreless. The Rebels added 18 points to the score in the third quarter, starting with a 64 yard punt return by Thomas Clayton. A seven yard pass to tight-end Simmons made the score 32-0 and a one-yard run by Daniel made the score, at the end of the third quarter, 38-0. Hill failed to convert any of the third quarter scores.

Stanislaus' only score came in the fourth quarter on a 24 yard David Worrel pass to flanker Tom Hampton. Mike Carbon's point after made it 38-7. The final score of the game came on a seven yard run by Rebel running back, Maurice Bell. Hill's conversion attempt failed, making the final score 44-7.

Red Raiders Lose To P.R. Academy

Christ Episcopal's Red Raiders lost to Pearl River Academy of Poylune, 14-8, last Saturday afternoon. Captains for the Red Raiders were Stuart Allen and Joe Dousan.

In the second quarter, the Raiders came to life. Asahel Cooper, guard, blocked and nearly intercepted a pass, thereby halting a drive and stopping a Pearl River score. Greg Poindexter, quarterback, threw three passes, all complete, to Jami Hans. Tailback Maury Wingo ran 20 yards for a 1st down but the team received an illegal procedure penalty which set them back. Wingo again ran for 15 yards and Joe Dousan plowed through the middle for yardage. Wingo got it down to the 1-yard line and Dousan carried it over with Wingo going for the extra two points. There were some good tackles by Dousan, Matthew Hammitt, and Stuart Allen.

OLD NEWSPAPERS WELCOMED

For many years the Brothers of St. Augustine Seminary has collected old newspapers to sell for the benefit of the Seminary.

We are grateful to our long and faithful clients, and we welcome new ones. The newspapers can be deposited in the paper shed on Ruella next to our truck garage. If you cannot easily locate it, just ask any of the fathers, novices, brothers or students to direct you.

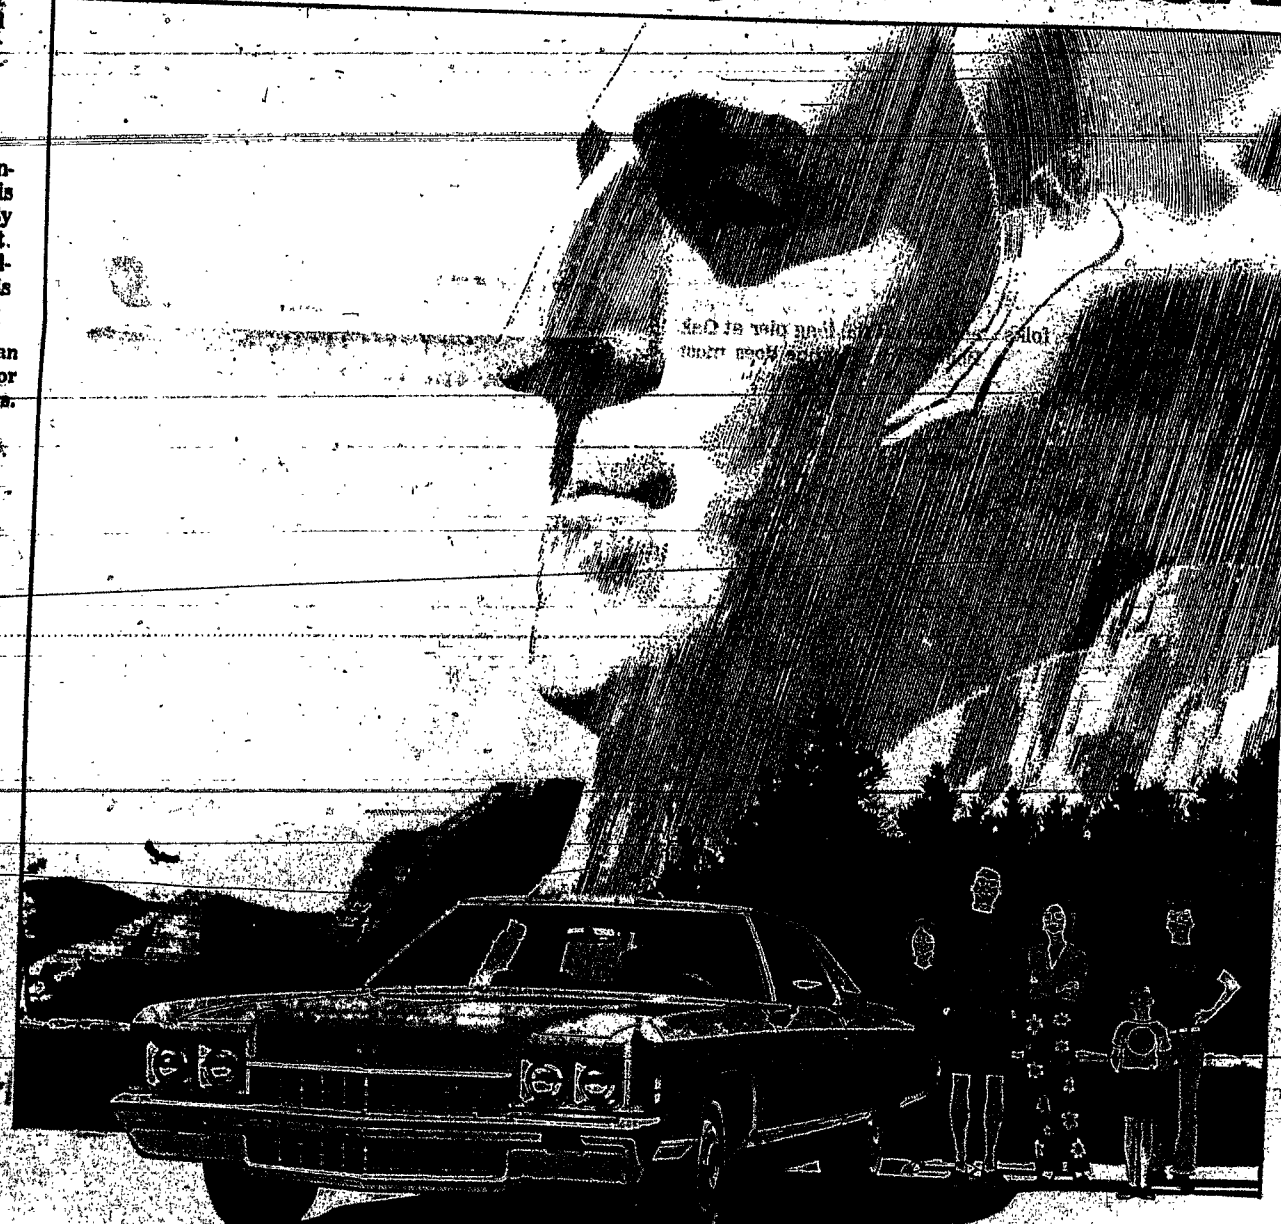

Due to an increasing amount of work at the Seminary and the shortage of brothers, it is no longer possible for us to come to your homes to pick up the paper.

In addition to discarded newspapers, old clothing and just plain rags are welcome as they have a commercial value. Unfortunately, old magazines cannot be sold. So please, no magazines.

Again we would like to take this opportunity to thank all our friends for their interest and help in the past, and at the same time we hope to make new ones who would like to bring their old newspapers to our paper shed on Ruella at the Seminary.

Brother James, S.V.D.

Tides have settled down and the water in most bays and rivers are clearing or have cleared, making fresh water fishing back to normal. Bass and perch are hitting pretty good.

After this month fishermen fishing for fresh water fish will have to go to underwater baits and trolling for them. Bass will only hit top baits when the weather is rather warm.

Some speckles and other salt water fish are being caught along the seawall both down Cedar Point way and by Bayou Caddy. Exceptionally croakers are being caught most anywhere. Flounders are still hitting on the bottom, while a few are being speared. Soft crabs seem to be out of the question with very few folks going after them.

A number of our sportsmen have turned to dove hunting since the season opened last Saturday. The first segment of the dove season will last until October 3rd. Mississippi's second two segments will be November 20-23; and Dec. 16 to January 15. It is too warm we think to hunt doves at this time.

Doves are migratory birds. They come to this part of the country during colder weather. Doves are known by several names such as Turtle Dove, Longtailed dove, Wild dove, but are known locally as the mourning dove. Mourning doves breed from the Canadian provinces to Mexico.

Their small heads, slim, streamlined bodies and long pointed tails are distinctive. The food for mourning doves is mostly weed seeds and waste grain. They prefer small seeds but corn, peanuts and soybeans are eaten. The fast flying little birds are a favorite with most hunters. Haven't gotten any dope on dove hunting as yet. More next week.

To mention a few local dove hunters, there are: August Rauxet and sons Nicky, Ronnie and Keen; Dick Mestayer and sons, Dick, Jr., and Allen; Harry Roman, Louis Decell, Tut Mont, Ray Garner, Bubby

Ladner, Willie Williams, Luke Elliott, Dr. Bertucci and many others. We can't remember off-hand.

Norman Green has just returned from New York where he visited his sister Mrs. Donald L. Murray (the former Sherrill Green). Norman has always been a great fisherman and fishes with his sidekicks, Leg and Lawrence Cholna. All are local boys.

Milton Bozeman does mostly salt water fishing. He has been catching quite a few Spanish Mackerel lately.

Bob Glassell and his wife, Pauline, do most any kind of fishing. They live in Waveland and fish off the long pier at Oak Boulevard. Pauline does most of the fishing however.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Del Rio are ardent fishermen. They love to catch speckles and what have you, out in front of Waveland. Like crabbing, too. Got to be real sports.

Lennis Lamulle and son Robert were out fishing on their boat Sunday. They were after speckles. Usually get them.

Quite a few speckles are being caught down Bayou Caddy way. They are pan-size but fun to catch. The bigger ones will be in soon, boys!

Uncle Bud Seller fishes down that-a-way. He knows his fishing and usually has pretty good luck.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Baudry and family were over Sunday visiting the Doc Elliotts. No time to fish but promised to bring the boys over for a fishing trip soon. They now live in New Orleans.

The frogging season will soon be over. September is usually the last month for this sport.

Have seen some big frogs lately. They are mighty good eating. Expect to go after them.

Shrimping along the seawall is not too hot according to those who have been waiting to go for them. Can probably blame the delay on Edith. Shrimp are usually plentiful at this time of the year and shrimping parties are numerous. Cast nets are the most popular method for catching them.

Never argue with your doctor—he has inside information.

Mose Guidroz has returned to Bay St. Louis. He resided here on other occasions but has come home for good as he put it. Bay St. Louis is God's country he claims. Mose expects to get back to fishing and enjoying his friends.

SPORTSMAN OF THE WEEK—John Damborino doesn't claim to be a fisherman or hunter. But when it comes to catching soft crabs and flounders he is hard to beat. Goes pretty often when the seasons are on.

Mrs. Nellie McCain is back in her old stomping grounds, Bay St. Louis, after residing in Baltimore, Maryland. There is no place like home, she said. Mrs. McCain is an ardent reader of this column and does some fishing, too.

Joe Compretta wants to do some crabbing. Needs them for that good old gumbo. Kinda scarce right now, Joe. But we can try.

White and Mullatto Bayous were pretty dirty but are clearing up rapidly. Mullatto Bayou is an excellent place to catch bass, speckles, red fish and other salt water fish when they are running. Mullatto runs into Pearl River near its mouth.

Did you know that mullets usually caught in cast nets are also caught on the hook and line using earth worms for bait.

These are mostly fresh water mullets.

Charlie Prest and Mrs. Prest had another successful fishing trip to Empire, La., this week. Brought home some beautiful red fish and speckles. They are both ardent fishermen and know how and where to get them.

Unless we are wrong, Norman Benigno and Wop Glover are planning to go to Parchman for the annual dove hunt. These two have been going for years. Both know their dove hunting and bring home their share of the prized little birds.

The annual Hancock County Fair is scheduled for October 4 through the 9th. There will be a horse show, livestock show, judging and display. It will be held at the old airport highway 90. Pat Murphy is chairman of the Fair Committee. There will be the regular concessions. Fun for both old and young. Better attend.

The Waveland Civic Association held its annual barbecue and softball game at Elwood Park last Sunday. Players were old men against the youngsters. Tennis matches were also held. The barbecue was a huge success. The games weren't completed. Eating and refreshments were most important. A grand time was had by all attending.

Gulf Park College Campus To Become University Center

A non-degree granting university center offering upper level undergraduate as well as graduate courses will be established on the Gulf Park College property at Long Beach according to a joint announcement made today by local and state college officials. In a joint statement W.O. Stone, Jackson, president of Mississippi's Board of Trustees of Institutions of Higher Learning, and McRae Turner, Jr., Gulfport, chairman of Gulf Park's trustees, said a proposal acceptable to both groups has been adopted.

Turner stated, "That the Gulf Park Board had solicited proposals from a number of institutions, both private and public, for use of the Gulf Park facilities." Many expressed no interest in the proposal. Those expressing an interest were carefully weighed by the Gulf Park Board before a decision was made that this was the best use of the property available to the Board.

The proposal calls for the State College Board to:

1. Acquire ownership title to the approximately 26 acres of land comprising the main campus of Gulf Park College, and all physical improvements and equipment not specifically excluded at the time of actual transfer of the property.
2. Rename the campus Gulf Park University Center and designate it as a resident center as outlined in the bylaws and policies of the College Board which prohibit the granting of degrees for college work done at resident centers.
3. Grant authority to the University of Mississippi, University of Southern Mississippi and Mississippi State University to offer resident credit as soon as practical.
4. Permit and encourage all colleges under the College Board to offer resident credit and other programs as the demand justifies.

LT. ALLAN SARRAT, JR., USAF, is undergoing pilot training at Laredo Air Force Base in Laredo, Texas. Lt. Sarrat is a former resident of Bay St. Louis and is married to the former Margaret MacDowell also of the Bay.

Junior Auxiliaries Plan Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of Region IV of the National Association of Junior Auxiliaries will be held Thursday, Oct. 14, at the Hattiesburg Country Club in Hattiesburg. Presiding over the meeting will be Mrs. David King, Regional Director from Hattiesburg.

Mrs. Dudley Herrington, Regional Meeting Chairman, announced that the theme this year will be "Good Old Days" and that guests will be greeted with good old-fashioned hospitality. Delegates from thirteen chapters of Region IV will be representing the following auxiliaries: Bay Waveland, Biloxi-Ocean Springs, Brookhaven, Columbia, Gulfport, Hattiesburg, Laurel, McComb, Meridian, Pascagoula-Moss Point, Piquette, Sildell, and the Baytown Service League.

Employers Invited To Meeting

Business employers in Hancock County will want to avail themselves of the opportunity of participating in a meeting in Gulfport on Monday (Sept. 27) to learn how to comply with the National Occupational Safety and Health Act, which is applicable to all employers whose workers are covered by Social Security, with only a few exceptions.

The meeting will be held at the Mississippi Power Company at 2322 West Beach, beginning at 9:30 a.m.

The Gulf Coast meeting is the first of seven regional one-day seminars scheduled by the State Board of Health, the designated state agency to implement the OSH Act in Mississippi, as a public service to business employers throughout the state. No registration fee is required.

Business employers in this area who are unable to attend the Gulfport meeting, may wish to attend a similar meeting scheduled for Sept. 30 in Meridian at the East Mississippi Electric Power Association or one on Oct. 11 at Southeast Jr. College in Summit, said Whitehead.

Estopinal-Maggio Vows Exchanged

Rev. Lawrence A. LeVasseur performed the double ring ceremony. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a candlelight organza gown, trimmed with lace borders, embroidered with seed pearls and crystal seed beading. Her veil fell from a headpiece of lace beaded with seed pearls and she carried a cascade bouquet of orchids, roses and rose petals of material matching the bridesmaid's dresses adorned with rhinestones and pearls.

Mrs. Dennis Lamarque of Chalmette served as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Harold Weigan and Mrs. Harvey Bennett, sister of the groom, Mrs. John Connolly, Mrs. Bruce Taylor and Mrs. Roland Campagna.

They wore floor length orchid dresses, trimmed with ivory lace and orchid hair braid hats trimmed in purple. They carried bouquets of purple orchids and orchid carnations.

Capt. Roger Boh Jr. of Alexandria, Va., spent several days last week with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Boh Sr. Also visiting in the Boh home over the weekend were their son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Dorian Fleming of New Orleans.

THANK YOU

I would like to take this means to thank everyone who helped elect me as your next State Representative. I have been trying to thank everyone personally but due to my job I haven't had the necessary time for such an undertaking.

Now that the election is over we should all come together and let our political differences be forgotten. I think that we are all working for the same goal - a better Hancock County.

Sincerely,
Earl "Buck" Ladner

(Pd. Pol. Adv.)

Lutheran Church of the Pines, Waveland, was the setting for the afternoon wedding September 11 of Miss Karla Kay Bielstein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Bielstein, Waveland, and Robert Gilbert Tartavouille, son of Sam Tartavouille, Bay St. Louis, and the late Mrs. Alviria Tartavouille.

Rev. G.G. Press performed the double ring ceremony before an altar centered with an arrangement of gladioli, chrysanthemums and greenery flanked by potted palms.

Mrs. G.G. Press, organist, played the traditional wedding march.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white street length empire style dress. The lace bodice featured long sleeves. Her single tier of silk illusion fell from a flowered head piece and she carried a bouquet of sweetheart roses, miniature chrysanthemums and ivy centered with an orchid.

Miss Mary Thomas,
